

Cornwall, South England

April 14 – 21, 2013

Brugges, Belgium

- After a long night on the bus we arrived in Brugges, Belgium...
- We visited the Museum of Chocolate and the Museum of Chips... yammy!

Brugges, Belgium

England

- After visiting Brugges we stayed in Dunkerque, France in a Formula 1 hotel.
- On Tuesday morning (April 16) we set off for England.
- The first stop in England was Stonehenge.

Stonehenge

Plymouth

- In Plymouth we explored sea life in Plymouth Aquarium – sharks, turtles, stingray, octopus, etc.

Plymouth Aquarium

Plymouth

Pilgrim Fathers went through this gate to begin better life in New World.

Plymouth

- We stayed in Plymouth for three nights in families.
- A typical British house has a small front garden with a gate and a path.
- There is a larger back garden with a shed in it.

Land's End

- On Wednesday April 17 we visited Land's End.
- It was really windy there...☺

Land's End

St. Michael's Mount

- To get to the castle across the land bridge was very difficult and wet... 😊

Minack theatre

Have you ever seen
a theatre on the sea shore...?

Eden project

In a former tin mine
Eden Project was built
– 2 large bioms –
Tropical and Mediterranean.

Eden Project

Tintagel Castle

- On Thursday April 18 we visited Tintagel Castle, the place where legendary King Arthur was born...
- The sea views were amazing!

Tintagel Castle

Tintagel Castle

Tintagel Castle

Tintagel Castle

Glastonbury

- On Friday April 19 we went to see Glastonbury, the place of the biggest music festival in England a the place where legendary King Arthur was buried.
- The next stop was Wells – the place of famous cathedral.

Glastonbury

Glastonbury

Our eccentric guide was very funny....

Wells Cathedral

London

- Last day Saturday April 20 it was London, the capital of the UK. Weather cooperated well, it was an awesome day...😊

English breakfast in London

The Houses of Parliament and Westminster Bridge

London

Big Ben and the London Eye

Buckingham Palace

The teacher sitting between F.D.R. and Winston Churchill

Looking forward to seeing you in England 2014...😊